A new railroad from Owensboro to Madisonville is to be chartered by the coming legislature.

The Catlettsburg Republican, edited and published by E. H. Porter, is just out in Boyle county.

The Kentucky Legislature will convene on Monday, Dec. 30, and a Democratic caucus has been called for Saturday, the 28th.

Bowling Green proposes to celebrate Christmas by opening up her new street railway for business. The cars will be running before the end of the week.

Pat Hunt was hanged at Paris Wednesday for the murder of Jas. Abner. He died game, remarking to one of the bystanders while on the scaffold, "If I go to hell I will have a good fire for you when you come."

R. W. McFarland, an Owensboro lawyer, fell down a flight of stairs this week, while drunk, and was killed by the fall. He formerly occupied a position of some prominence at the Owensboro bar, but drink had been his ruin. He was 47 years of age.

There are three candidates for Speaker of the Lower house of the Legislature, which convenes Dec. 30. They are Harvey Myers, of Kenton, W. T. Cox, of Warren and Gus Richardson, of Meade. The chances are largely in favor of Myers being nominated.

Jeff Fuson, of Bell county, sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for malicious shooting, acted as his own guard and delivered himself to the warden a few days ago to serve out his term. No officer accompanied him, but Fuson himself carried the necessary papers of commitment.

If Mr. McKenzie has decided to reconsider his determination to be a candidate for Senator he should say so in so many words. To say that he has never been a candidate is to put his friends in an embarrassing attitude, to say the least of it. We are inclined to the opinion that Mr. McKenzie has been misquoted.

The Cronin jury found a verdict Tuesday. Daniel Coughlin, Patrick O'Sullivan and Martin Durke were sentenced to life imprisonment. John Kunze was given three years and John F. Beggs found not guilty. The murder of Dr. Cronin was a most brutal and highly sensational crime and his murderers may esteem themselves lucky that they are to escape hanging.

Speaking of Christmas presents, nothing would be more appropriate or more appreciated today than a present for a friend than a year's subscription to the Kentuckian. Other presents that cost more would soon be broken, worn out or forgotten, but the Kentuckian would prove a pleasant reminder of your thoughtful friendship more than a hundred times during the year.

Mr. McKenzie has evidently changed his mind on the question of running for the Senate. He is quoted as saying that he is in no sense a candidate. The announcements made by both papers of this city last summer, that he would enter the race, were not without authority. There is no doubt that his intentions were to make the race, but he has probably concluded like McCrory to wait awhile longer.

While the body of Walter Elliott was being lowered into the grave at New York this week the young man got up in his coffin and asked what was being done with him. Another case of actual premature burial is reported from Madison, Wis. A month ago a young girl died and when the body was taken up this week for removal the corpse was found lying on its face with the hair pulled out and the flesh torn from the face and hands. The girl had been buried alive.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

A List of the Voters not Listed For Taxes.

A careful examination of the city tax collector's books has been made and the following names of voters who assisted in the election of the Republican council last Saturday nowhere appear. The assessment was made after the 15th of January and no citizen who was not here Dec. 14, 1888, was entitled to vote in the late election. The record here presented shows that either one-eight of the colored voters of the city were not listed by Mr. R. T. McDaniel, who made the assessment, or else the late election was carried by wholesale fraud, perjury and corruption. Here is the list, which the public can analyze:

White.—A. W. Bracke, J. W. Cooley, W. J. Witty.

Colored.—Sam Adams, Jno. Barnett, Lawson Bell, Geo. Boyd, Fredrick Boales, John Boyd, (colored No. 2), Jno. Brewer, Jno. Black, Jesse Boyd, Geo. Butler, Hollins Berry, Silas Bradshaw, Isiah Bradford, Ed. Buckner, Fred Coleman, Damon Crenshaw, Jesse Coleman, A. S. Cox, Henry Davis, Henry Davis, Neal Catlett, Wm. Dawson, Bill Dowling, Wm. Dabney, Jr., J. Fleming, Archie Green, Lucien Green, Hillman Green, Joe Gibson, Dick Harrison, Rev. G. A. Hubbard, Reuben Hubbard, Dock Hughes, Joe Hopson, Jno. Harris, Joe Jackson, Kit Johnson, Jas. King, Henry Killbrow, Sam Ledford, W. A. Littlepage, Dan Marshall, Tom Moore, Ben McCoy, Grant McNeely, Austin Myers, Jno. Nourse, J. Henry Napier, Dave Orchard, Jno. Overby, Porter Phelps, Israel Pierce, A. H. Payne, Wm. Roach, Page Rogan, Joe Robinson, Grove Rollins, Wilson Ratcliffe, Simpson Sharp, Jim Stoner, Henry Sykes, Walter Henry Stites, Sam Taylor, Wm. T. Tyler, Julius Thompson, Jordan Withers, Geo. Walker, Jno. Williams, Bill Washington, Chester Wilcox, Simon Wilcox, Jr., Andrew Williams, Chas. Worth, Strother Wallace—74.

Albert Slaughter, Wm. Roach and S. H. Long voted, but they may be Alfred Slaughter, Willis Roach and Solomon Long, whose names appear on the books.

Of the names on the books Alex Jones is reported as having moved to Madisonville and Bob Norsinger to Trenton. They were both on hand and voted.

The following voters held to be qualified by the Democratic judge of the election were denied a vote by the two Republican officers: Jas. Bradley, Stephen Blair, col., J. A. Long, Bell Metcalfe, col., T. L. Turner, col., and John H. Witty. They are all sworn and stated on oath that their homes had been in Hopkinsville for a year or more.

To say nothing of these votes rejected by the Progressive ticket and the above enumerated votes of a questionable character admitted on the Republican side, the list of non-listed voters given shows 77 names. A small proportion of these are well-known parties omitted by the city assessor and some few are boys who have just come of age. But the great majority of them were fraudulent votes illegally admitted. A number of them have already been located outside the city. It will be seen that four or five of them gave the names of white men in the city and it is not unlikely that some of these names are entirely fictitious.

The list above is published for a two-fold reason. These names, if they are residents of the city, should have been listed for taxation and the information contained in this article in order that they may be properly listed. Furthermore, those who are found to be non-residents, who have perjured themselves, will likely be wanted when the grand jury shall meet.

It is safe to say that at least three if not four of the gentlemen on the Progressive ticket were beaten by fraudulent votes and two and perhaps three of the Republicans elected are ineligible under the laws of the city as interpreted by some of the best lawyers of Hopkinsville. It is not likely that any contest will be made, but the tax-paying, law-loving people of Hopkinsville will ask of the coming Legislature such legislation as is needed to insure fair and honest elections in the future.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would find in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for one case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

Withers, formerly of this city, and any tobacco consigned to them will be properly handled on the market and the highest price obtained, as the gentlemen composing the firm are old men in the business and exceedingly popular.

MATRIMONIAL.

BREATHITT-THOMPSON.—Married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. G. V. Thompson, at 8:30 o'clock last evening, Hon. Jas. Breathitt and Miss Olivia Thompson. Rev. J. W. Lewis, of the Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman.

Only a few very intimate friends and the near relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the congratulations were over the bride and groom proceeded to the residence of Maj. J. W. Breathitt, a few squares away, and were given an informal reception. They will for the present take rooms and board at Mrs. Breathitt's.

The groom is one of the leading lawyers of the Hopkinsville bar and enjoys the reputation of being its most eloquent and gifted orator. He has several times represented the county in the Legislature and has filled other official positions. At present he holds the office of city attorney, to which he has been twice elected without opposition. He is one of Hopkinsville's most promising young men, with a bright future in store for him. His bride is one of the young ladies who has given Hopkinsville its distinction as the home of lovely girls. Bright, pretty and petite she has ever been a favorite in social circles. In choosing her as the object of his affections, Mr. Breathitt has displayed excellent taste and in winning her his good fortune has gained for him the congratulations of his friends. May their lives ever fall in pleasant paths.

HODGSON-WOOD.—Mr. Sam'l J. Hodgson, of Clarksville, and Miss Georgia Wood were married at the residence of Mr. Eugene Wood in this city, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. H. A. Macdonald officiating. The newly married couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Clarksville, their future home. Mr. Hodgson is a very popular and enterprising business man of Clarksville and his handsome bride is the accomplished sister of Mr. Eugene Wood, one of our best known citizens. The Kentuckian extends congratulations, although it doesn't like to see so many of our pretty girls captured every year by Hopkinsville's rival across the line.

Previous to starting, the bridal party partook of a very elegant lunch prepared by Mrs. Wood. A great many handsome and costly wedding gifts were received by the bride.

DRAGHAN-SETTLE.—At the residence of the bride's parents, at Kenesha, Ky., near the Tennessee line, on Wednesday last, Prof. J. T. Draughan, of Texarkana, Tex., was married to Miss Minnie Settle, one of the belles of South Christian. Mr. W. Winn, of Texarkana, and Miss Lizzie Killbrow were the attendants. Prof. Draughan formerly lived in this city, but is at present at the head of a business college in Texarkana. His bride is a very charming and estimable young lady belonging to one of the best families of South Christian. The newly married couple left for their western home.

BAILEY-STANDFORD.—Dr. W. O. Bailey and Mrs. Lorca Scott Standford were married at Paducah Wednesday and left for Louisville. The wedding was a quiet one. Dr. Bailey is the original sweetheart of the young bride, who was an "old man's darling" for three weeks and held her to a fortune of over $200,000, one-third of Dr. Standford's estate.

SCOTT-MCGEE.—Mr. Sink Scott and Miss Maggie McGee, both of South Christian, were married last Sunday at the residence of Rev. I. G. Joiner, near Lafayette. They were given a reception at the groom's residence.

D. B. Sills and Miss Edna Wynn, an eloping couple from Kentucky, were married at Clarksville on the 13th by Dr. Sears.

Mr. William T. Price, a Justice of the Peace at Richmond, Nebraska, was confined to his bed last winter with a severe attack of lumbago; but a thorough application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm enabled him to get up and go to work. Mr. Price says: "The Balm can not be recommended too highly." Let any one troubled with rheumatism, neuralgia or lame back give it a trial and they will be of the same opinion. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavelle.

It is put up in 50 cent and $1 bottles. For sale by Buckner Leavelle.

The Montana Muddle.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 17.—Up to now no attention has been paid to the so-called warrant sent by the Democratic minority to the Republican members of the Lower House, who have decided to ignore it in toto. Just how the matter will be settled is still a question. The Governor without notice this morning sent his message to the Senate and the Democratic House. In the former it was read, but when its nature was discovered was laid upon the table, as the Senate had not permanently organized. The Democratic House referred it to a select committee. The message, after treating the subjects of needed legislation, is a half apologetic and a half defiant epistle on the present muddle, but presents no new feature or advice for a solution.

The Clarksville Tobacco Leaf gives this account of the arrest of a trio of wheat thieves at Guthrie: "Pork Prince and Clarence Hollins brought to the city yesterday three colored men named Dock Eddington, Scott Bennett and Henry Trevaathan, and lodged them in jail on a charge of stealing wheat from Mr. Prince. That gentleman had missed between 50 and 200 bushels of wheat, besides a lot of corn. In the last few months, he suspected these negroes and watched them. Last week he learned that they had delivered fifty-four bushels of wheat (eighteen sacks) to Pope's mill on Elk Fork, in Kentucky, and concluded that that one in Mr. Prince's neighborhood would hardly think of. He at once had them arrested, when they confessed the theft."

CREAM OF NEWS.

Ward's Engagement.

The coming engagement of Frederick Ward is being looked forward to by theatre-goers with much pleasurable anticipation. It promises to be the most brilliant and fashionable theatrical event of the season. Mr. Ward is a prime favorite here and he will be given a genuine ovation. The matinee performance will be "Gaston Castle" and at night will be given that great play "The Mountebank" with a superb cast and elegant appointments.

The seats will be on sale at 10 o'clock Monday morning at Galt's at $1.00 and 50 cents. This time has been fixed so as to give out of town parties time to be on hand and get a fair show at the choice seats.

He Walked in His Sleep.

Mr. J. Kropp, the well known tobacco buyer of Clarksville, walked from the window of his room in the Arlington hotel, Clarksville, Tuesday night while asleep and was very seriously if not fatally hurt. He was found unconscious at 2 a. m. by the night clerk. His principal injuries are internal, though a shoulder and five ribs are broken. Mr. Kropp has been a very large buyer on this market and is a man liked by all who know him. He fell a distance of 20 feet and struck the brick pavement. He had regained consciousness at last accounts.

A Young Man's Fall.

This item appears in Wednesday's Louisville Times:

"A minister's son has added his name to the criminal list. It is Harvey Bingham, son of the Rev. Mr. Bingham. The young man has been employed as time-keeper by Harrison & Gathright, and boarded with E. Truman, at 224 Seventh street. Last night he stole Mrs. Truman's small cash box and traded it at Stavitzky's pawn shop for a cheap camera ring. Detectives Daly and Cassin arrested him at noon today. Bingham admits his guilt."

Hurt by a Falling Door.

F. F. Henderson, one of the foremen at the planing mill, had one of his legs injured last Wednesday morning by a door falling on it from the second story of the building. At first the injury was thought to be very slight, but while afterwards it became so painful that Mr. Henderson had to be taken to his home in a carriage. It is quite probable that one of the bones was fractured.

We Feed the Governor.

The Eugene Mills Co., of this city, received an order Tuesday from Frankfort for four barrels of their patent Luxury flour, for use in the family of Gov. S. B. Buckner. This is the second order of this kind received during the current year. Gov. Buckner knows a good thing when he tastes it and consequently sends to Hopkinsville when he wants the best flour made in the State.

DEATHS.

John Trotter died near Macedonia on the 14th inst, leaving a family.

Mrs. Stewart, wife of James D. Stewart of the Antioch neighborhood, died Wednesday of brain fever, aged 34 years.

Carriers' Address.

On next Tuesday morning, the 24th inst., Willis Cowan and Ben Armstrong, the KENTUCKIAN carriers, will call upon their patrons with an elegantly written and uniquely arranged address. It was written by one of our best local poets and is full of good things as an egg is of meat. The boys will at the same time deliver the regular edition of the paper and will be thankful for such tokens of appreciation as may be given them by those upon whom they have so faithfully called during the year. Dimes, dollars, gold watches, town lots or other useful articles possessing a monetary value will be accepted and appreciated in proportion to their worth. Do not forget them, but contribute something in the way of Christmas money and at the same time secure a most readable and meritorious poem.

The temperature during the present month has been so mild that signs of spring are to be seen everywhere. The grass has taken on a greener hue, shrubbery is showing signs of life, some trees are budding and strawberries are in some places blooming. This is all very pleasant, but the old saying "A green Christmas for a fat graveyard" is brought to mind.

Miss Jennie L. Brewer, one of the most capable and efficient colored teachers of the county, will be married Tuesday evening the 24th inst. to Jas. H. Poole, a son of the late Alex. Poole. A large number of invitation have been sent out and the affair will be the social event of the season in the first circles of colored society.

The Louisville Critic refers to a former resident of this city:

"Among the prominent advertisers of this city, who express high appreciation of the value of The Critic as a medium through which to catch the public eye and heart, we are pleased to note Levy Brothers, the clothiers. Their advertisements always attract attention, especially those in The Critic, and we congratulate them on the fact that they have struck a happy vein. There is one of the two local concerns which find it necessary and profitable to employ an 'advertising man,' and service in this line is rendered them by Mr. H. M. Caldwell, an old newspaper man, and a new entry in the advertising profession."

A BOY AND A PISTOL.

A Son of Councilman Campbell Shoots a Colored Boy.

Charley Campbell, an 18-year-old son of Mr. E. P. Campbell, shot and seriously wounded a colored boy named Bill Terrill at Tate's saloon on Ninth street Tuesday evening.

Conflicting reports are circulated about the affair. One is that Campbell and the negro boy, about his own age, had quarreled over a game of "craps" and that Terrill had cursed Campbell. The latter went off and borrowed a pistol and seeing Terrill in the saloon opened the blind and fired three shots at him. Another report is that Terrill was also armed and was looking for Campbell.

One of the three shots took effect in Terrill's side, ranging around the front part of his body just above the stomach and lodging under the skin on the opposite side. It was thought at first that the cavity had been penetrated and that death would ensue, but there is now a prospect of recovery.

Campbell after the shooting walked down to Bell's saloon on Main street. Chief Campbell and Officer McCord saw him and asked him if he had been in a difficulty at the depot, a rumor of the affair having been caught on the street. He denied all about it, but said he noticed some fighting at Tate's saloon as he came by. While the officers were trying to find out the facts, Campbell slipped through the crowd and made his escape and is still at large. It is thought that he is hiding awaiting the result of Terrill's wound.

The young man's parents are very much distressed over the affair, which may turn out to be a case of homicide.

Everybody knows that the conditions for health are not favorable when the stomach, liver, and bowels are disordered. In such cases, headache, indigestion, and constipation are the result; for all which ailments the proper remedy is Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
